TIRE INSPECTION ORDER

After a hearing on November 28, 2012, the parties in the above-entitled and numbered cause submit the following Tire Inspection Order reflecting the Court's ruling:

- (1) There will be no destructive testing of the tire or tire pieces;
- (2) The tire and tire pieces will be shipped in sealed containers to the following address:

Germer Gertz Beaman & Brown, LLP
301 Congress Ave., Suite 1700
Austin, Texas 78701
- (3) The sealed containers and their contents will be videotaped without sound as the containers are opened, and the videotape will record the tire and tire pieces during the entire time without interruption from the time the containers are opened until the tire and tire pieces are returned into the containers and the containers are resealed; the video shall not identify any faces or identities of the individuals performing the inspection;
- (4) Kumho Tire Co., Inc. and Kumho Tire U.S.A., Inc. ("Kumho") will make the person responsible for the inspection and the videotaping aware of the terms of this Order;

- (5) The tire and tire pieces will be returned to Plaintiffs' counsel in sealed containers along with the videotapes mentioned above within 60 days from the date that the tire and tire pieces are received by Kumho or its counsel; and
- (6) Kumho will bear full responsibility for the tire and tire pieces from the time it leaves Plaintiffs' counsel until it is received by Plaintiffs' counsel upon its return from Kumho.

SIGNED this the 11 day of November, 2012.
